

Description

The black Alton toilet brush combines aesthetic discretion with high efficiency, being a solid choice for bathrooms in hotels, local accommodation, offices and other professional spaces.

With a black finish, it integrates easily into modern and minimalist environments, offering a more sober presence without compromising elegance. Its structure was designed for frequent use, ensuring resistance and stability in daily use.

Inside, it includes a removable container that facilitates cleaning and contributes to simpler hygienic maintenance. The base is resistant material protects the floor against scratches and moisture, ensuring greater durability.

Equipped with nylon bristles, it allows effective access to all areas of the toilet, including hard-to-reach zones, promoting thorough cleaning with less effort.

With a compact format and independent base, it adapts easily to different bathroom configurations, maintaining a neat presentation.
